

GENERAL CASILLAS TAKEN ON BORDER

Foremost Rebel Leader Captured on Secret Mission to El Paso.

CARRYING A RIFLE WHEN ARRESTED

Navarro and Forces Continue to Advance Northward and Battle Is Near.

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 12.—The Mexican revolutionary junta is still much alarmed today over the arrest, near Ysleta yesterday of General Manuel Casillas by United States troops patrolling the border. Casillas, who came to El Paso secretly Saturday afternoon to confer with the revolutionary leaders, was captured when he tried to recross the border to join his forces.

Ysleta is twelve miles east of El Paso. Casillas was captured by Lieut. W. B. Reiser, user and Sergeant W. H. of the Third United States Cavalry. When taken, the insurgent leader had a brand new rifle and 150 rounds of ammunition, evidently newly purchased in El Paso. He was committed to jail, where he spent the night. The revolutionary junta members are planning to obtain his release.

Successful Leader.

Casillas was a practicing attorney at Chihuahua before the revolutionary outbreak, but has participated in all the campaigns in Chihuahua state during the past four months, and has been one of the most successful of the revolutionary field leaders.

"Two years ago," he said to a correspondent today, "I received a commission in the district of Guerrero, and had not thought but that I would be able to live in comfort the rest of my days. Arbitrarily my rights were taken from me because I dared to express myself against the taxation then being levied. I weighed heavily on my people. From the time I took sides with the anti-re-electionists, I have been persecuted."

General Orozco and his several subordinates, commanding about 1,200 men, have evidently retired still further south from Juarez.

General Navarro and his re-enforcements for Juarez continue to advance northward very slowly, practicing all sides by revolutionists. Navarro has advanced only a few miles from Ahumada, eighty miles south, since Saturday. He is proceeding with great caution, fearing the railway tracks have been mined by the insurgents.

Colonel Martinez, jefe politico of Juarez, who had issued invitations for a reception yesterday to General Navarro, had to call off the affair owing to the "unavoidable absence" of the guest of honor.

Believe Battle Near.

American newspaper correspondents here believe Orozco and Navarro may clash this afternoon or tomorrow. They besieged Provisional Governor Gonzalez today for passes through Orozco's lines so that they may witness the engagement from the start.

This engagement is expected to be the most decisive of the entire revolutionary campaign. If Navarro is defeated the capture of Juarez by the insurgents is almost certain. Orozco's defeat means the revolutionist forces will be broken up and scattered.

Mexican federal officials declare that the government is slowly hemming in Orozco and the other insurgent leaders in the North with a view of crushing them at a single blow.

Tells of Her Marriage In Delirium While III

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Feb. 12.—A surprise was given by the announcement of the marriage nearly three months ago of Thomas A. Quick, expert accountant with the Dutchess Fire Insurance Company, and Miss Alma Linquist, a nurse in the Hudson River State Hospital. The couple meant to keep the marriage a secret until March, when they would sail for Bermuda, but in delirium when ill a few days ago Miss Linquist revealed the secret of her betrothal.

When she had recovered and was informed of what she had said, she admitted it was true. Her parents live in Brooklyn.

Army and Navy Service Orders

ARMY.

Captain CHARLES L. J. Frohwitter, Coast Artillery Corps, from treatment at the Walter Reed General Hospital, District of Columbia, to join his station.

First Lieutenant WALTER J. SCOTT, Tenth Cavalry, is detailed for general recruiting service, Fort McDowell, California, relieving Captain Leon L. Rouch, Fifteenth Infantry, from duty at that depot and from further duty on recruiting service.

First Lieutenant SEATON NORMAN, Medical Reserve Corps, to Fort Wingate, New Mexico.

First Lieutenant William H. Allen, Medical Corps, from treatment at the Walter Reed General Hospital, District of Columbia.

Major WILLIAM P. BURNHAM, General Staff (Theater), after his relief from detail in the General Staff Corps, to Hawaii Territory.

NAVY.

The following orders have been issued: Lieutenant Commander E. F. ECKHART, detached from Yorktown, to home to wait orders.

Lieutenant D. A. WEAVER, detached from Lancaster, to Yorktown as executive and navigator.

Lieutenant F. B. BERRIEN, detached from Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., to command Trippe.

Passed Assistant Surgeon W. G. FARWELL, detached Naval Station, Guantanamo, Cuba, to South Carolina.

Assistant Surgeon W. J. RIDDICK, detached South Carolina, to Naval Station, Guantanamo, Cuba.

MOVEMENTS OF VESSELS.

Arrived—Prairie at Charleston, Marietta at Tompkinsville, Wilmington at Hongkong, Tecumseh, Tallahassee and Rocket at Washington, De Long and Tinney at Wilmington, N. C., and Dolphin at Port au Prince.

Sailed—Calico, from New York, for Guantanamo, Louisiana, Kansas, and New Hampshire, from Samana bay for Guantanamo; Arethusa, from Port Arthur, Tex., for Key West, and Lebanon, from San Juan for Guantanamo.

MASONIC NOTABLES GATHER NEXT WEEK

Alexandria to Be Scene of Washington Birthday Celebration.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., FEB. 12.

The many notable Masons from nearly every jurisdiction who will assemble here on February 20 will meet not only for the purpose of celebrating the birthday of George Washington, but to further the arrangements in connection with the Washington Masonic Memorial Association.

Its primary object is the erection of a suitable Masonic memorial to George Washington in the form of a temple to be located at Alexandria, one floor of which shall be set apart forever as a memorial hall, and is to be under the control of the several Masonic grand jurisdictions of the United States.

Its active members are composed of the grand masters of each jurisdiction, together with one accredited representative whom they shall designate. Honorary members shall be designated by the Masonic memorial committee of Alexandria-Washington Lodge, No. 22, A. F. & A. M., and all funds raised for the purpose of erecting this temple shall be turned over to this committee.

The temple will also afford a safe depository for the priceless Masonic regalia of early days, most of which are at present contained in the rooms of Alexandria-Washington Lodge.

The executive committee of the Laymen's Missionary Association will meet in the Sunday school rooms of the Second Presbyterian Church at 7:45 this evening, and it is requested that the full membership attend, in order that the full plans may be formulated for the convention to be held here February 18.

The funeral of John Griffin, formerly a compositor on Washington newspapers, who died at his residence, 355 South Pitt street, yesterday morning, will be held from St. Mary's Catholic Church, Wednesday morning, at 9:30 a. m.

The following cases were disposed of in Police Court this morning: Rose Bowles, assaulting and beating Nanny Jackson, fined $5; Cliff and Ethel Broadus, disorderly conduct, fined $5 and forfeited collateral; John Washington, colored, assault, case continued over until tomorrow.

The Council of Jewish Women have arranged a euchre party to be held at The Young Men's Sodality Lyceum Hall Wednesday evening, the proceeds of which will be given to charity.

Chancery cases will be disposed of in corporation court today.

The city council will meet in its chambers tomorrow evening, and it is hoped that some decision will be rendered, as to the authority of the police board to designate a member of the force to fill the office of assistant or second chief, regarding which there has been considerable controversy and which was referred to the laws committee at the last session of the council.

It is expected that there will be some action on the resolution favoring increased pay for patrolmen.

The Rev. Dr. Berryman Green, newly appointed bishop-coadjutor of Virginia, who was stricken with paralysis last week, is reported as in a greatly improved condition of health.

While visiting at the home of Frank Tobey, 55 North Patrick street, yesterday afternoon, John Wesley Kennedy, died, of heart failure. He was fifty-two years old, and a native of Maryland. Funeral arrangements have not been made, pending the arrival of his two sons.

James G. Heon, a Greek merchant, died at the Hospital yesterday, following an attack of pneumonia. Funeral services will be held from Deanna's chapel this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and interment will be made in Bethel Cemetery.

To better promote the social function of the church and to bring the male portion of the congregation closer together, the Rev. P. Parker Phillips has invited the men of his church to meet at an informal reception to be given in the parish hall at Pitt and Duke streets next Wednesday evening. While no particular program has been arranged for the occasion, there will be music and light refreshments, followed by cigars, and the evening will be given over to sociability.

The Chamber of Commerce will gather in its rooms at King and Washington streets this evening for its regular monthly meeting.

Aged Watchman Beaten By Colored Desperado

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 12.—Upon the outcome of the injuries of Robert Warren, aged sixty-three, a watchman on the pier at the end of Chestnut street, will depend the nature of the charges that will be preferred against a powerful negro giving the name of Robert Johnson, who is accused of having pounded Warren into insensibility.

While the police attempted arrest Johnson he stood them off by firing at them until his ammunition was exhausted.

Johnson was arrested after he had been taken to the hospital.

Johnson was taken to the hospital.

Johnson was taken to the hospital.

Johnson was taken to the hospital.

Johnson was taken to the hospital.

Johnson was taken to the hospital.

Johnson was taken to the hospital.

Johnson was taken to the hospital.

Johnson was taken to the hospital.

Johnson was taken to the hospital.

Johnson was taken to the hospital.

Johnson was taken to the hospital.

Johnson was taken to the hospital.

Johnson was taken to the hospital.

HOPP SAYS BRIBE WAS OFFERED HIM

Suit Is Outcome of Burning of the Bryant Mansion.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU.

WASHINGTON, D. C., FEB. 12.

When William J. Dugan and John H. Walter, charged with bribery, appear in Police Court tomorrow morning, it is thought that they will merely appear to plead and that none of the details of the charge which grew out of the burning of an old mansion at Four Corners, Md., will be presented.

The men stand accused of having offered a bribe of $500 to Ferdinand Hopp, of 1246 Sixth street southwest, whose testimony regarding the destruction of the Maryland mansion is considered very material.

The men were arrested Saturday night. Dugan was found at the home of Hopp, where the detectives say, he was in the act of paying Hopp $500. Walter's arrest followed.

The Bryant mansion at Four Corners was burned in September, 1887. At that time the names of T. H. Pickford and John H. Walter were connected with the destruction of the house, but warrants, issued for them in Maryland, were not procured. Later a suit was brought against Pickford by Maurice Talbot, State's attorney for Montgomery county, who considered himself libeled by certain statements of this action James Hudson also brought suit against Pickford.

The suit against Pickford was brought in this city. It was appealed and last week the judgment was affirmed by the Supreme Court of the United States. As an outgrowth of this action James Hudson also brought suit against Pickford.

A few days ago Hopp reported to Attorney F. E. Mitchell, who represents Hudson, that he had been offered money to change his testimony.

Cavalrymen on Trial For Shooting Negro

T. J. Mullineux and Clifford L. Feldheim, the Port Myer cavalrymen charged with shooting the negro, William L. Smith, on Aqueduct bridge the night of July 18 last, are on trial in Criminal Court, No. 2, before Chief Justice Claiborne.

District Attorney Wilson presented the case to the jury, claiming that the negro was deliberately shot by the soldiers, and asking a verdict of guilty. The defense claims that the plaintiff belonged to the negro and admitted that it was fired by Mullineux in self-defense against the negro, who assaulted Mullineux and Feldheim.

Pigs' "Knuckles" Stolen From Birthday Party

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—The "Pop" Rothman Birthday Club celebrated the sixty-fifth anniversary of Thomas Rothman's birth with sauerkraut, spare ribs, and hockwurst, minus the "pigs' knuckles" were the appetizer de resistance of the menu, but while the chef retired to the clubroom to announce the repast, thieves made away with 300 of them, which were traced to a near-by cemetery, where the intruders enjoyed their loot.

Merchant's Life Saved By Suspender Buckle

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 12.—A suspender buckle was the means of saving the life of Michael Worjtek, a prominent dry goods merchant. Worjtek was walking along Concord street, on his way to church when three men under the influence of liquor accosted him and one of them pulled a revolver and shot at him.

The bullet entered Worjtek's clothing a little to the right of his heart. The bullet was stopped by a heavy suspender buckle. Worjtek dropped as if dead, but was soon revived by passers-by.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

Worjtek was taken to the hospital.

VALENTINES READY FOR THE FAITHFUL

Uncle Sam Will Send Them to Army Officers in Service.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU.

WASHINGTON, D. C., FEB. 12.

No comic valentines for the judge advocate general's office of the War Department! All are "pretties," and all have the initials "U. S." on them, to show there is true feeling behind them.

One of them is for Brig. Gen. George B. Davis, judge advocate general, who will be retired, with the rank of major general, at noon tomorrow, his sixtieth birthday and the end of forty-eight years of service.

General Davis, a native of Massachusetts, entered the volunteer service in September, 1862, and served with the Army of the Potomac till the end of the civil war. He later entered the Military Academy at West Point and graduated in 1871. He served with the Fifth Cavalry in numerous Indian campaigns in the West. From 1883 to 1888 he was assistant professor of law and history at the Military Academy, and then, after another service with his regiment, he was transferred to the judge advocate department with the rank of major. He became professor of law at the Military Academy in 1895 and judge advocate general of the United States army of pacification in Cuba.

Another valentine is for Col. Enoch Crocker, who will succeed General Davis, with the rank of brigadier general, with twelve years of service before him. Colonel Crocker's service includes discharge of the duties of judge advocate general of the United States army of pacification in Cuba.

Lieut. Col. John A. Hull, who entered from the volunteer service in Iowa during the war with Spain, will become colonel, and next in rank to the judge advocate general. Colonel Hull is a son of Chairman Hull, of the House Military Affairs Committee.

Major John Riddle Porter, of Pennsylvania, will become a major. He has recently returned from the Philippines, where he was judge advocate general.

First Lieut. A. A. Kruger is another officer in the judge advocate's department that entered the service from Iowa volunteers. Lieutenant Kruger has been acting judge advocate general of the Department of Colorado at Denver, with the rank of captain, since December 25, 1907. He will be formally advanced to the rank of captain.

Socialists Resenting Prince Henry's Sur

BERLIN, Feb. 12.—The Socialists and the progressive press are showing the keenest resentment today over Prince Henry of Prussia's characterization of the Socialists as the "enemy in our own country."

The Kaiser's brother made this characterization in an address last night at the military veterans' banquet, in which he said:

"It is the duty of all of us to rally around our own supreme war lord, the Kaiser, and to crush the enemy in our own country. Of course, we respect political convictions, but as soon as the orderly basis of such convictions is abandoned in favor of revolutionary methods, we must uphold by all our means the law and authority. Soon as you all know, there will be an opportunity for each one of you to show his patriotism."

The Kaiser's brother made this characterization in an address last night at the military veterans' banquet, in which he said:

"It is the duty of all of us to rally around our own supreme war lord, the Kaiser, and to crush the enemy in our own country. Of course, we respect political convictions, but as soon as the orderly basis of such convictions is abandoned in favor of revolutionary methods, we must uphold by all our means the law and authority. Soon as you all know, there will be an opportunity for each one of you to show his patriotism."

The Kaiser's brother made this characterization in an address last night at the military veterans' banquet, in which he said:

"It is the duty of all of us to rally around our own supreme war lord, the Kaiser, and to crush the enemy in our own country. Of course, we respect political convictions, but as soon as the orderly basis of such convictions is abandoned in favor of revolutionary methods, we must uphold by all our means the law and authority. Soon as you all know, there will be an opportunity for each one of you to show his patriotism."

The Kaiser's brother made this characterization in an address last night at the military veterans' banquet, in which he said:

"It is the duty of all of us to rally around our own supreme war lord, the Kaiser, and to crush the enemy in our own country. Of course, we respect political convictions, but as soon as the orderly basis of such convictions is abandoned in favor of revolutionary methods, we must uphold by all our means the law and authority. Soon as you all know, there will be an opportunity for each one of you to show his patriotism."

The Kaiser's brother made this characterization in an address last night at the military veterans' banquet, in which he said:

"It is the duty of all of us to rally around our own supreme war lord, the Kaiser, and to crush the enemy in our own country. Of course, we respect political convictions, but as soon as the orderly basis of such convictions is abandoned in favor of revolutionary methods, we must uphold by all our means the law and authority. Soon as you all know, there will be an opportunity for each one of you to show his patriotism."

The Kaiser's brother made this characterization in an address last night at the military veterans' banquet, in which he said:

"It is the duty of all of us to rally around our own supreme war lord, the Kaiser, and to crush the enemy in our own country. Of course, we respect political convictions, but as soon as the orderly basis of such convictions is abandoned in favor of revolutionary methods, we must uphold by all our means the law and authority. Soon as you all know, there will be an opportunity for each one of you to show his patriotism."

The Kaiser's brother made this characterization in an address last night at the military veterans' banquet, in which he said:

"It is the duty of all of us to rally around our own supreme war lord, the Kaiser, and to crush the enemy in our own country. Of course, we respect political convictions, but as soon as the orderly basis of such convictions is abandoned in favor of revolutionary methods, we must uphold by all our means the law and authority. Soon as you all know, there will be an opportunity for each one of you to show his patriotism."

The Kaiser's brother made this characterization in an address last night at the military veterans' banquet, in which he said:

"It is the duty of all of us to rally around our own supreme war lord, the Kaiser, and to crush the enemy in our own country. Of course, we respect political convictions, but as soon as the orderly basis of such convictions is abandoned in favor of revolutionary methods, we must uphold by all our means the law and authority. Soon as you all know, there will be an opportunity for each one of you to show his patriotism."

The Kaiser's brother made this characterization in an address last night at the military veterans' banquet, in which he said:

"It is the duty of all of us to rally around our own supreme war lord, the Kaiser, and to crush the enemy in our own country. Of course, we respect political convictions, but as soon as the orderly basis of such convictions is abandoned in favor of revolutionary methods, we must uphold by all our means the law and authority. Soon as you all know, there will be an opportunity for each one of you to show his patriotism."

The Kaiser's brother made this characterization in an address last night at the military veterans' banquet, in which he said:

"It is the duty of all of us to rally around our own supreme war lord, the Kaiser, and to crush the enemy in our own country. Of course, we respect political convictions, but as soon as the orderly basis of such convictions is abandoned in favor of revolutionary methods, we must uphold by all our means the law and authority. Soon as you all know, there will be an opportunity for each one of you to show his patriotism."

The Kaiser's brother made this characterization in an address last night at the military veterans' banquet, in which he said:

"It is the duty of all of us to rally around our own supreme war lord, the Kaiser, and to crush the enemy in our own country. Of course, we respect political convictions, but as soon as the orderly basis of such convictions is abandoned in favor of revolutionary methods, we must uphold by all our means the law and authority. Soon as you all know, there will be an opportunity for each one of you to show his patriotism."

The Kaiser's brother made this characterization in an address last night at the military veterans' banquet, in which he said:

The PALAIS ROYAL

Saved

Properly Fitted Glasses

Glasses ground and adapted to each individual case, not only help the vision but allay the ill that eye strain, conscious or otherwise, creates. Headache, nervousness, dizziness and sick stomach are produced by eye strain often before your eyes tell you so. Dr. Samuel knows—consult him without charge.—Balcony Parlor, First Floor.

$1.00 up

VALENTINES

Free of Charge

—With the Dainty Valentine Neckwear

On first floor table, near Eleventh street door, are dainty neckpieces, each in box with valentine, ready for mailing. Neckpieces are 25c and 50c—no charge for valentine or box.

$1.50 Copyright Books, 44c

—With Valentine Free of Charge

The Music Master.
The Goose Girl.
The Third Degree.
"Doc" Gordon.
Dr. Lavender's People.
The Thirteenth District.
The Lion and the Mouse.
A Mysterious Disappearance.
Rebecca Mary.
Tony Bungay.
A Little Brother of the Rich.
The Riverman.
The Turn of the Balance.
Half a Rogue.

Romance Island.
Under the Red Robe.
The Lion's Share.
The Web of the Golden Spider.
The Port of Missing Men.
A Daughter of the South.
The Blasted Trail.
Satan Sanderson.
Diana of Dobson's.
Beverly of Graustark.
The Four Pools Mystery.
At the Time Appointed.
Her Mountain Lover.
The Lure of the Mask.
Colonel of the Red Hussars.

Light Fingert Gentry.
Fair Margaret.
The Day Before Yesterday.
The Shepherd of the Hills.
Comrades.
The Missourian.
Get Rich Quick Wallingford.
Partners of the Tide.
Princess Zara.
The Bronze Bell.
The Golden Horse Shoe.
Elizabeth Visits America.
The Pest.
The Fighting Chance.
Princess Maritza.

The Summer Girl a Chrysalis—Today

But She'll Burst Forth in Full Glory the First Summer Day

As the butterfly emerges in its glorious plumage, so does the summer girl. The chrysalis that changes to a butterfly apparently lacks life and beauty as much as do these miles of wash dress goods—but we know the change is made and the glory that results.

12-yd. Pieces Longcloth and Nainsook

at Special Sale Prices

$1.25, $1.50 and $2.00 Longcloth at $1.19, $1.39 and $1.69 Piece

English Nainsook, $1.69 instead of $2.00 Piece

Sherrette

This new linen-finish material, figured in colors, washes to perfection. Regular price, 25c yard. Special sale price, 18c.

Flaxon

A new white wash fabric in plaids, checks, and stripes. Extra value at regular price, 19c. Special sale price, 15c.

Voile

Real French Wash Voile, in plaids, checks, and stripes. Extra good value at 25c yd. Special sale price, 29c.

Foulard

This new wash fabric of 1911 is to be a standard at 12½c per yard. Special sale price, 10c.

Gingham

Newly beautiful shades of best colored, warranted sun and water proof. Standard at 10c yd. Special sale price, 7c.

Organdie

The Newly Artistic 25c French Organdie, unusually sheer and in beautiful designs and colors. Special sale price, 19c.

Linon

White India Linon, sheer and free of blotches. Unusually good value at 12½c yd. Special sale price, 9c.

Lawns

Sheer and with French figures, in new designs and colors. Standard at 12½c yd. Special sale price, 9c.

$7.98

Robe Patterns, comprising 31-3 yards embroidery flouncing, 45 inches wide; 31-3 yards banding to match; 3 yards plain material 45 inches wide.

$5.00

Robe Pattern, similar to those at $7.98, but less elaborate. Note that these robes are samples and cannot be duplicated at the price.

</